Signing Players/Commitments/Releases/Team(s) folding after the start of the season:

U10 through U18 – GTHL Rules and Regulations apply

During and following tryouts each team's Head Coach is responsible for offering positions on the team to players that have been assessed throughout the tryout period which the team's coaching staff feel can contribute to the overall success of the team.

The coaching staff must understand that when they offer a position to a player, they have made a commitment to the said player for the duration of the hockey season. The coaching staff are responsible for fulfilling this commitment. However, there could be a situation that would lead a Head Coach to request the President or General Manager to RELEASE him or her from such commitment to a player prior to November 15th.

RELEASES will be considered only by the General Manager or President under the following conditions:

1. A player who is a discipline problem.
2. A player who seriously disrupts the harmony of the team.
3. A player's parent who causes serious problems or disruptions to the team.
4. A player who has had promises made to him or his parents by the coaching staff and these promises have not been fulfilled.

5. A player who has been treated unfairly by one or more of the Team Officials of the team.
6. A player being released by the Organization.

The player and the player's parents must also be made aware that when they sign a Player Registration Certificate with a Ted Reeve Thunder team, they in turn are making a commitment to the Ted Reeve Thunder team for the duration of the hockey season. The Organization, the coaching staff, the parents, and the player all have responsibilities which must be met throughout the hockey season.

- b) When a parent or player requests a RELEASE, the Head Coach must inform them that the request must be referred to the General Manager. The Head Coach must obtain the reason in writing as to why the RELEASE is being requested and this information should be forwarded to the General Manager. No money will be refunded with respect to either team or registration fees if the player/parent requests the release.
- c) The GTHL recognizes the President and General Manager as the only Club Officials with SIGNING AUTHORITY for the Organization. Should a Head Coach release the player without the consent of the President or General Manager, the Organization will levy consequences to the Head Coach and possibly other Team Officials of the offending team. In addition, the team will be responsible to reimburse the player any team fees and including any registration fees paid to the Organization.
- d) If a Head Coach decides to release a player with the consent of the President or General Manager, the team will be responsible for refunding the team fees and Organization fees on a pro-rated basis.
